

Boy Scout Troop 242
Members of Boy Scout Troop 242 camped out at Idyllwild over the weekend of June 12-14 with a group of 20 scouts and seven fathers climbing Devils Slide trail Friday night by moonlight.

in Skunk Meadows, the Scouts reported on their return. Saturday, a party of 16 climbed Tahquitz Peak to an elevation of 8826 ft. and were awarded "Squirrel Cards" by the U. S. Forest Ranger. Attending the campout were four staff members, three of the Arrow Patrol, three Hawks Patrol, three Eagle Patrol, and six Panthers. A court of honor will be held June 29 for the troop at the North Torrance Christ the King Lutheran Church, 2706 W. 182nd St. Three members of the troop, Jerry Weeks, Dave Turcott and Jack Day, have been passed by the Harbor District Board for Eagle Badge award.

Troop 743
Members of Harbor City Scout Troop 743 held a swimming party yesterday to earn credit towards the first class swimming awards. Plans were formulated at a recent meeting of the troop committee held at the home of Lawrence Barton to spend the weekend of June 27 and 28 at Circle X Ranch, Boy Scout Camp near Oxnard. Mothers of the troop met at 8 p.m. yesterday at the home of Mrs. Irene Mason, 25032 Frampton St., Harbor City. The next meeting of the troop committee will take place at 7:30 p.m. July 8 at the home of Richard Thurber, 1541 248th St.
